My magazine, "Investing for Profit," (which I'll send free) is worth $10 a copy to any man who intends to invest any money, however small; who has money invested unprofitably, or who can save $5 or more per month, but who hasn't learned the art of investing for profit.

It demonstrates the REAL earning power of money—the knowledge financiers and bankers hide from the masses.

It shows how to invest small sums and how to make them grow into fur-tunes—the actual possibilities of intelligent investments.

It reveals the enormous profits bankers make and shows how you can make the same profits safely.

It explains HOW stupendous fortunes are made and WHY they are made—how $1,000 grows to $22,000.

To introduce my magazine write me it SIX MONTHS FREE.

Bloodhounds Pail.

WHEELING, Sept. 18.—Last evening a special engine and car was sent to Moundsville and the bloodhounds were brought from that place to Benwood Junction, where they were used in endeavoring to locate a man that had been found in the act of robbing a box car. The dogs, however, could not get the trail and they were taken home at a half hour after midnight.
The man was discovered by one of the B. and O. officers and when he ran the latter fired a shot after him, but without effect. The man is not believed to have gotten anything for his trouble.

BUSTER BROWN'S HOLIDAY.

It is a Clean Cut Musical Comedy
With Special Ties That Arouse Applause.

Buster Brown and his canine companion Tige will be seen at the Grand opera house to-night in a new and up-to-date version of the New York Herald's famous cartoons entitled Buster Brown's Holiday. Manager Melville B.
Raymond, famous for his past effort in producing shows of this character, announces that his forthcoming production of Buster Brown's Holiday will be entirely new and bright in every particular. The stage settings will be pretty and complete, the company will be a large one, numbering over fifty people, and the costuming will be handsome and elaborate.

Master Rice, who has played Buster in Mr. Raymond's productions for the past four years, will again be seen in this heralded character. A large chorus of pretty and particularly young girls will surround Buster and will render many difficult musical numbers likewise several intricate drills and dances.

The Jackson hotel, which has been closed for several months, was opened to-day. The first meal was served at noon. The opening starts off very propitiously. The majority of the members of the Buster Brown's Holiday company are stopping at the Jackson. A. M. Berns is proprietor of this popular hostelry.
